

Logistics & Transportation

Logistics Associates

“Logistics Associates is a Third Party Transportation Logistics Provider. Essentially, we do for cargo what a travel agent does for passengers: identify specific shipment needs and then provide the best transportation solution. Although we move all types of freight, our strength is in handling “time sensitive” shipments for clients such as “just in time” inventory system suppliers and trade show exhibitors. When timing is everything, Logistics Associates always comes through.”

Carol D'Alessandro

VP, Business Development

Why choose Logistics Associates?

We are a highly service-oriented company, supplying transportation solutions to the exhibit & display industry, as well as manufacturers, printers and distribution companies. Our staff's integrity, broad experience and attention to detail combine to provide you with a stress-free shipping experience.

Our logistics specialists are experts in handling all types of freight – both domestically and internationally – and will always know exactly how to best handle your shipment. With an extensive array of industry contacts, we ensure that every shipment is delivered on schedule in a thoroughly professional manner. If your company needs to move products or cargo from point A to point B, call us!
